

STUDENT AMBASSADOR OPPORTUNITY

We are looking to employ Student Ambassadors to support the Student Recruitment Team at RGU. Working as an Ambassador is an excellent opportunity for current students to support the university in several key areas which include helping to promote RGU, sharing knowledge and experience of being a student and inspiring prospective students into higher education.

Student Ambassadors are highly important representatives for the university and play a crucial role in student recruitment. Although this role does not guarantee a set number of hours, the role offers highly valuable and varied work experience to enhance your CV.

PERSON SPECIFICATION

- You need to be a current RGU Student for this role.
- Excellent communication and interpersonal skills.
- Passionate about RGU and the city of Aberdeen.
- The ability to problem-solve and use initiative.
- Be punctual and reliable
- You will be a representative of the university so it would require you to be professional and able to relate to individuals from a diverse background
- Willingness to participate with enthusiasm.
- Have great time-management and organisational skills.
- Be proactive when it comes for opportunities to highlight RGU as a university via social media, as well as opportunities for content.

Rate of Pay ~~£12.71 p.h.~~

Hours There is no set hours.

Hours will vary month to month based on opportunities available and the role is designed to be flexible around your studies.

WHAT'S INVOLVED?

- Working at events such as Open Days/Discovery Days or Virtual Events.
- Attend workshops in secondary schools/colleges.
- Speaking with prospective students on our chat platform.
- Clerical support during busy times during the Student Recruitment Cycle.
- Content Creation including blogs, vlogs, podcasts, photos, testimonials, etc.
- Other